

Bottomless Brunch

Terms and Conditions

All guests will need a valid form of I.D to attend Bottomless Brunch as this is an 18+ event. Please note this event does not allow children or infants under any circumstances.

Our dress code is tidy-casual. This means no caps, sportswear, singlets, jandals, hoodies, trackpants, or gumboots. Failure to comply with our dress code may result in you being denied entry.

Everyone at the table must pay $47, regardless of whether they are drinking alcohol or not (non-drinkers can enjoy non alcoholic options).

Bottomless Brunch is table service only, no drinks can be purchased from the bar during your session.

Your booking includes 90 minutes of bottomless drinks service and one serving of Eggs Benedict.

The full Bottomless Brunch drink menu can be found above. Any drinks not on this menu can be purchased at regular sales price.

Your session is 90 minutes from the booking time and cannot be extended.

No sculling. Our team will be coming around with drinks regularly during your 2-hour session, so just relax and let the drinks come to you.

One drink at a time. If you want to switch it up, your glass needs to be cleared by staff before the next drink is served.

Intoxicated guests can't be served. If anyone at the table is showing signs of intoxication, we legally have to stop service for them.

Groups that are deemed intoxicated on arrival will be denied entry.

Rules of Sale & Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 apply.

We take our host responsibility very seriously. Your group's intoxication levels will be monitored by our team and as part of this host responsibility we do not allow sculling or double parking of your drinks. If these rules are ignored you may be refused service.
